

RESIST AND PERSIST!
NLG Southwest Regional Conference
April 1, 2017, 9 am – 6:30 pm

Where: Univ. of Denver, Anderson Academic Commons, Special Events Room Rm 290 (Main Level),
2150 E. Evans Ave., Denver CO 80210 (Across from the Law School)

Parking: $5 at Evans Ave. parking structure at SE corner of Evans and High, enter on west side.

SCHEDULE

9:00-9:30 Registration, continental breakfast

9:30 -9:40 Welcome & Introductions - Isabel Posso

9:40-10:10 Keynote: Place of Lawyers in the New Environment - David Lane

10:10-11:00 Activist Lawyers' Toolbox: Injunction and Mandamus - David Lane and Sharyn E. Dreyer

Discussion of cause of action under Rule 65, elements & proof, parties, standing, exhaustion, assembly of facts, FOIA/CORA, use of experts to establish disparate enforcement, experience of DNC, Occupy, BLM and current events, interaction with 1983 action. Mandamus under CRCP 106 or 28 USC 1361.

11:05-12:00 Crimmigration: Training for Immigration Lawyers - Hans Meyer and Whitney Leeds
Discussion of interaction of criminal law and immigration systems, priorities for deportation, reopening criminal convictions, training for immigration attorney, use of experts to document historical facts, unaccompanied minor/special immigration status.

12:00 to 1:00 Lunch on your own - see local restaurants hand-out

1:10-2:00 Sanctuary Campuses and Cities: Conflicts of Law - Prof. Nancy Ehrenreich

2:05-3:00 Movement Lawyers and Mass Defense: The Case of the Water Protectors/DAPL - Jeri Shepherd and Angela B. Bibens

Mass Defense, supporting institutions and organization, recruiting and qualifying attorneys pro hac vice/temporary practice rules (e.g. CRCP 205), client interactions

3:00-3:10 Break

3:10-4:00 Effective Use of Interpreters to Bridge Language and Cultural Barriers - Francisco Picado

4:05-5:00 SLAPP (Strategic Lawsuit Against Public Participation) - Use of Statutory and Case Law Protections of First Amendment Activity - Lori Potter and Larry Hildes

5:00-6:30 Reception

REV. 2017-03-13