

National Lawyers Guild - UO Chapter presents...

#WAMI 2022

Week Against Mass Incarceration:

Mass Incarceration & the Housing Crisis

Feb
28

Origins of the Housing Crisis & the Criminalization of Poverty

KNI 241
@ 6 p.m.

Join Claire Herbert (PhD) to learn about the intersections between law, housing, and incarceration

Food provided. First come, first served

Mar
1

Perspectives on Housing, Homelessness, and Mass Incarceration in the Age of COVID-19

Zoom
@ 12 p.m.

A panel experience with the Oregon Law Center & West Coast Social Justice Attorneys featuring: Ed Johnson, Doug Ecks, Gautam Jagannath, and Dianne Prado

Mar
2

Stop the Sweeps: How to Struggle and How to Win

Learn from a coalition of individuals fighting against sweeps and those who profit from the exploitation of poverty and public space

Zoom
@ 12 p.m.

Mar
3

Alex S. Vitale: Policing and the Unhoused - Harms and Alternatives

KNI 175
@ 6 p.m.

Food provided. First come, first served

Listen & learn from the author of The End of Policing who has spent the last 30 years researching the topic and consults police departments & human rights organizations internationally

Mar
4

Day of Action & Strategy with The Way Home

A full day experience: spend 1/2 the day serving the community; spend the other 1/2 strategizing legal tactics to address the issues impacting the unhoused community

Check out our Insta for more info:
@uo_nlg