Proponents: National Executive Committee (NEC)

Email: jilisa.milton@gmail.com

WHEREAS the National Lawyers Guild may revoke chapter charters for activities contrary to the aims of purposes of the organization, but the current system can delay action up to a year until the National Convention, we propose that the National Executive Committee have the ability to revoke chapter charters timely. All National Executive Committee decisions are reviewable by the National Convention.

Original text: The National Executive Committee may recommend by a vote of two thirds of its members, the revocation of the charter of any chapter. Such action shall become a revocation if ratified by a two thirds vote of the next National Convention.

Proposed language: The National Executive Committee may revoke the charter of any chapter by a vote of two thirds of voting National Executive Committee members.

Implementation: The National Executive Committee will have the ability to revoke a chapter charter after notice in writing and an opportunity to be heard as required by the National Lawyers Guild Constitution and Bylaws. The NEC consented to this amendment.

Compliance with Bylaws Section 8.7: The NEC consulted all chapters to request their consent to the proposed changes. The majority did not respond to the request.
